American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

THE following Abridgment of the Annual Report of the Board, adopted at its late meeting, will present to the reader the condition and prospects of the several missions, together with a view of the general operations of the Board during the year which closed at that period. By comparing the statements here given with those inserted in the first number of the last volume of this work, it will be seen that the number of the missions remains the same: that the number of the stations occupied is less by five than it was the last year, owing principally to the interruptions experienced in the Cherokee and South-African missions: that the number of ordained missionaries is increased by ten, and the whole number of laborers sent from this country by seventeen: that while the number of printing establishments and presses remains about the same, the number of pages printed during the last year is greater by four millions: that three more churches have been organized; and that the number of members has been increased by about five thousand: and if all those be included, of whose admission to church fellowship accounts have more recently come to hand, the advance in the number of church members will be not far from TEN THOUSAND. It will be seen also that the donations to the treasury of the Board were nearly eight thousand dollars greater than those acknowledged in the report of the preceding year.

To the survey of the missions and general operations of the Board is prefixed a view of its organization.

MEMBERS AND OFFICERS OF THE BOARD.

The Board is composed of corporate members, who are elected under the act of incorporation, corresponding members, also elected, and honorary members, constituted such by the contribution at one time, of one hundred dollars, if laymen, and fifty dollars, if ministers.

SURVEY OF THE OPERATIONS OF THE BOARD AND ITS MISSIONS.

Domestic Department.

OBITUARY NOTICES.

The Hon. Stephen Van Rensselaer, and the Rev. Gideon Blackburn, D. D., corporate members of the Board, have deceased since the last meeting. Of the missionaries, Mrs. Johnson of the mission to Siam, Mrs. Grant of the Nestorian mission, and Mrs. Wood of the mission to Singapore, have been removed by death.

MISSIONARIES AND CANDIDATES.

Twelve missionaries and assistant missionaries have been dismissed from the service of the Board, through failure of health, changes in the missions, and other causes.

Thirteen appointed missionaries have, at their own request, been released from their connection with the Board. In most cases, these brethren have relinquished their purpose of going to the heathen, in consequence of providential hindrances, growing out of their detention in this country, after their preparations to go abroad were completed.

Forty-two missionaries and assistant missionaries have been appointed during the year.

Thirty-seven missionaries and assistant missionaries have been sent out, viz: Three to Constantinople, four to Syria, two to Persia, twelve to Siam, two to Western Africa, one to Canton, two to Madras, three to Ceylon, and two to the Cherokee mission. Three missionaries have returned to the stations previously occupied by them.

Fifteen missionaries and an equal number of male and female assistant missionaries are now under appointment.

AGENCIES.

The Rev. Mr. Hand, General Agent of the Board for the northern district of New England has resigned, also, the Rev. Mr. Bardwell of the southern district. Rev. C. Eddy and Rev. F. E. Cannon have continued their labors as agents of the Board in the State of New York, and the Rev. W. M. Hall in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Maryland. The Central Board of Foreign Missions, of the Synod of Virginia and North Carolina, and the Southern Board of Foreign Missions, of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, have withdrawn from their connection with the Board, and the Rev. W. H. Foote, Secretary of the C. B. F. M. has resigned as General Agent of the Board for Virginia and North Carolina. The Board has had no General Agent in the southern states during the year. Rev. W. J. Breed was appointed last spring General Agent of the Board for the Western States. Up to the present time he has been detained by ill health from his field of labor, but expects to enter upon it without longer delay. Rev. Mr. Coe has labored as agent of the Board in the Western Reserve, and Rev. E. N. Nichols in Michigan.

Some of the returned missionaries have rendered valuable services to the cause, by their sermons and addresses, in various places during the year.

CO-OPERATING SOCIETIES.

The Board of Foreign Missions of the Protestant Reformed Dutch Church, has co-operated with us cordially during the year as in former years. And the general synod of the German Reformed Church has formed a Board of Foreign Missions, which at his own request has been admitted to a connection with this Board, similar to that of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Dutch Church.

The Board have received aid from the American Tract Society during the year, to the amount of $12,000—and from the American Bible Society to the amount of $9,000.

MISSIONARY HERALD.

The circulation of the Missionary Herald has been much enlarged. The sermon preached at the last meeting of the Board, together with the report then adopted, and seventy thousand copies of missionary and quarterly papers have been published during the year.

FINANCES.

The receipts of the Board for the year ending July 31st, were $244,169.82, and the expenditures, $227,491.56. The debt, which at the beginning of the year was $35,851.35, has been reduced to $19,173.09.

The actual payments out of the treasury were $227,491.56, besides the amount appropriated to the reduction of the debt. But if the appropriations made by the Committee, for the relief of the missions and for sending out new missionaries, agreeable to the instructions of the Board at its last meeting, had come into the accounts of this year, the expenses must have swelled quite beyond the receipts, and the debt have been much increased. Such a result is inevitable, during the year which has now commenced, unless there is a large and speedy increase of contributions.

Up to the first of May the receipts averaged more than $22,000 per month, and there was a prospect that the receipts for the whole year would have exceeded $270,000. But there was a great falling off in May, June, and July, as compared with the same months of the preceding year. From New England and the Western States less has been received than during the year ending July 31st, 1838. From the Middle and Southern States there has been a considerable increase during the year.

The operations of the Board cannot be sustained on the present scale, with such enlargement as is inseparable from a prosperous condition of the present missions, if its receipts remain below $300,000. It is for those who love the cause, and have chosen the Board as their agents, to say whether that amount of pecuniary resources shall be supplied, or whether the work shall suffer all the painful consequences of delay and contraction.

The Missionary House at Boston has been completed and occupied for several months. The officers of the Board have pursued their duties without interruption, or important change, since the last meeting.

Foreign Department.

MISSION AMONG THE ZULUS.

Daniel Lindley, Missionary; Newton Adams, M. D., Physician; Mrs. Lindley, and Mrs. Adams.

On a visit to this Country.—George Champion and Aldin Grout, Missionaries, and Mrs. Champion.

(3 missionaries, 1 physician, and 3 female assistant missionaries;—total, 7.)

The war between Dingaan and the Dutch emigrant farmers, has made the past year one of interruption and severe trial to this mission. Mr. Lindley remained at Umlazi after the departure of his family and the rest of the mission, to watch and report the progress of events. In April the Zulu army invaded Natal and Umlazi. They were not anticipated at the latter place till they were seen advancing. Providentially Mr. Lindley was then at the Bay, and found a safe retreat on board the brig "Comet," which had been detained there ten days by the sickness of the captain. In this vessel he unexpectedly had an opportunity to visit Delagoa Bay, about one hundred leagues to the northeast.

War continuing and great uncertainty hanging over the prospects of the mission, Mr. and Mrs. Venable thought it expedient to return to the United States, and they have since received, at their own request, an honorable release from their connection with the Board. Mr. and Mrs. Champion found it necessary to follow them soon after, in consequence of the protracted and painful illness of Mrs. Champion. These brethren and sisters arrived in the spring of the present year. Doct. Wilson arrived soon after the last meeting of the Board. He has since gone to the mission in West Africa. Messrs. Grout and Champion are anxious to resume their missionary labors among the Zulus whenever Providence is pleased to prepare the way. The health of Mrs. Champion is not yet such as to warrant her returning to Africa.

The colonial government took military possession of Port Natal last autumn, with a view to the restoration of peace. About the same time the Boers gained a decisive victory over Dingaan, and his capital fell into their hands. Recent advices give information that peace has been restored, and that our brethren now in South Africa were making preparation to return to Port Natal.

MISSION AT CAPE PALMAS.

FAIR HOPE.—John Leighton Wilson and Alexander E. Wilson, M. D., Missionaries; Benjamin Van Rensselaer James, Printer; Mrs. J. L. Wilson, Mrs. A. E. Wilson, and Mrs. James.—Three native helpers.

(1 station; 2 missionaries—one of them a physician, 1 printer, 3 female assistant missionaries, and 3 native helpers;—total, 9.)

The climate and the fever of Western Africa become less formidable on acquaintance, and missionaries from the Northern States appear to be little, if any, more exposed to danger from them, than those going from the Southern States. Mr. James, who is a colored man, was married, near the close of last year, to Mrs. Strobel, a woman of color, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilson to Africa as a teacher, though not under any direct appointment from the Committee.

The results of the press since the commencement of its operations, are as follows:—In the year 1837, 2,900 copies; in 1838, 4,112 copies; and in 1839 till March 1st, 3,860,—in all, 10,872, containing 180,532 pages. Mr. James is aided in the printing-office by two apprentices.

The mission church contains 29 members, eight of whom were received the past year. There was one excommunication. Four schoolmasters and seven boarding scholars are church members. The average congregation on the Sabbath is from 50 to 100. There are three free schools, with 50 pupils. The boarding-school, or seminary, contains 35 scholars, of whom 25 are males. They are generally moral and docile, and make good progress in their studies.

It is of great importance to the well-being of the native tribes of Western Africa, that the strongest possible religious influence should be thrown into the colonies, which are rising into existence and power upon their borders. Otherwise the fate of these tribes, notwithstanding the sameness of their color with that of the colonists, will, at no distant period, be that of the native tribes in South Africa and of our own country. It would seem to be our wisest course to assume the permanence of those colonies, and their future ascendancy over the native tribes, as unquestionable facts, and to frame our plans accordingly. It will be impossible to conduct missions happily and prosperously in the immediate vicinity of the colonies, unless the influence of the gospel is predominant in them; and their relations with the native communities, will necessarily extend and become more and more intimate. It is a mighty influence for good or evil, that is taking root in the African soil while the friends of Africa are engaged in controversy about it; and its branches will probably extend to the Niger, the Senegal, and the great Sahara, whatever views may be entertained of colonization as a means of good. On whom it devolves to labor in the gospel among the American colonists, the Committee will not pretend to decide. It does not seem to come within the range of duties devolving on the Board. Of late years it has seemed to the Committee that the field, which specially invites our attention, is remote from the colonies, perhaps among the Ashantees, and especially up the Niger; while, at the same time, it will be desirable for us to have a mission of moderate size at Cape Palmas. Indeed, we could hardly maintain an efficient mission in the upper countries of the Niger, without having a station at Cape Palmas, and another somewhere on the Gold Coast, to serve as places for rest and acclimation, and as intermediate posts of communication.

Mr. Wilson visited Cape Coast in the early part of last year, and received a kind reception from Gov. McLean, who promised a cordial welcome and protection to our mission, should we establish one there. The communication between Cape Palmas and Cape Coast is frequent.

Doct. A. E. Wilson, formerly connected with the South African mission, sailed for the Cape Palmas mission from New-York city, with his wife, on the 27th of July.

MISSION TO GREECE.

ATHENS.—Jonas King, D. D., and Nathan Benjamin, Missionaries; Mrs. King and Mrs. Benjamin.

ARIOPOLIS.—Samual R. Houston and George W. Leyburn, Missionaries; Mrs. Houston and Mrs. Leyburn.—One native helper.

(2 stations; 4 missionaries, 4 female assistant missionaries, and one native helper;—total, 9.)

The station in Argos has been discontinued, for reasons mentioned in the last Report. The books sold and distributed at Athens by Dr. King during last year, were 32,410. Besides these, copies of the Magazine of Useful Knowledge, printed at Smyrna, were sold to the amount of nearly 150 dollars. The books go to all parts of the kingdom. Dr. King estimates the copies of Scriptures, and parts of them, distributed in Greece by all the missionaries of the different missions, during the year, at scarcely less than 20,000.

At Ariopolis the brethren have erected a commodious Lancasterian school-house, but, owing to the unfriendliness of the government officer at Athens who has charge of education in the kingdom, they have not been able to get a master. Their high-school was doing much good. They appeared to have the confidence of the Maniotes, and had reason to think they were not laboring in vain among that peculiar and remarkable people. The Committee have heard with much regret, that Mrs. Houston's health had so far failed, that, as the only means of saving her valuable life, her husband had gone with her to Alexandria in Egypt, where they were in June.

Dr. King has nearly translated Baxter's Saint's Rest into the language of Greece. He has a class in Hebrew, and a regular preaching service on the Sabbath. The study of Hebrew has been introduced by the government into the University. It is also among the signs of the times, that one of the most learned of the priesthood in Greece and secretary of the Synod has published a book, in which he declares his decided opinion, that the Fathers of the ancient church were liable to err, and did err on a variety of subjects, and that the Holy Scriptures are the only infallible rule of faith. As a consequence of this, there is much cry of heresy.

MISSION IN TURKEY.

SMYRNA.—Daniel Temple, Elias Riggs, and John R. Adger, Missionaries; Homan Hallock, Printer; Mrs. Temple, Mrs. Riggs, and Mrs. Hallock.—Four native helpers.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—William Goodell, H. G. O. Dwight, William G. Schaffler, Henry A. Homes, and Cyrus Hamlin, Missionaries; Mrs. Goodell, Mrs. Dwight, Mrs. Schaffler, and Mrs. Hamlin.—Four native helpers.

BROOSA.—Benjamin Schneider and Philander O. Powers, Missionaries; Mrs. Schneider and Mrs. Powers.—One native helper.

TREBIZOND.—Thomas P. Johnston, and William C. Jackson, Missionaries; Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Jackson.

On a visit to this Country.—Mrs. Adger, of the Smyrna station.

(4 stations; 12 missionaries, 1 printer, 12 female assistant missionaries, and 9 native helpers;—total, 34.)

Mr. Riggs has been transferred from the Greek mission to Smyrna, to be associated with Mr. Temple in the superintendence of the Greek department in the printing establishment. Mrs. Adger visited this country with the approbation of the Committee, for the restoration of her health. Mr. Dwight has also visited this country, with permission from the Committee, and lately returned to Constantinople with his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin embarked for that city December 2d, and arrived February 3d. Mr. Homes returned from Syria in July of last year, after an absence of about sixteen months, much of which time was spent in Damascus for the acquisition of the Arabic language. In April of last year, Mr. Adger, accompanied by the Rev. S. H. Calhoun, agent of the American Bible Society, made a tour, of which he has given an interesting account, through a part of the country embracing the seven churches of Asia, travelling as far as Broosa and Nice.

At Smyrna the printing during the year amounted to 51,060 copies and 2,247,760 pages. The printing at this establishment from the beginning, is estimated at 32,247,760 pages. Almost 30,000 books and tracts were distributed, and 850 dollars were received for books sold. The Magazine of Useful Knowledge in modern Greek has about 1,000 subscribers.

It is found that Mr. Hallock's success in cutting the punches for the new and improved Arabic fount, was complete. Mr. Schaffler has gone to Vienna, to superintend the printing of his version of the Bible in Hebrew-Spanish at the expense of the American Bible Society.

The work can be done there more expeditiously, more economically, and better, than at Constantinople or Smyrna.

There are signs of progress among the Turks. But that principle in the administration of Turkish government, which makes the ecclesiastical head of each christian sect accountable for the good behavior of his whole community, is exceedingly unfavorable to the progress of free inquiry and pure religion among the nominal Christians. It gives the opposers of the truth a power in Turkey, which they cannot have in Greece; especially by entrusting that terrible instrument, banishment, to the ecclesiastical courts. Every nominal Christian, if not under foreign protection, must belong to some one of the sects acknowledged by the government. Of course there is no escape for the conscientiously evangelical native Christian from the inquisitorial fury of his ecclesiastical superiors, if they choose to make him an object of persecution. The Turkish power lends itself to them in such cases, and promptly executes their will.

This has been illustrated of late among the Armenians, in the violent outbreaking of persecution against those among that people who are converts to the evangelical faith. Hohannes, Boghos Physica, and two bishops have been sent into exile, and others have been imprisoned to await their sentence. A great number of names are said to have been put upon the proscribed list. This outbreaking and violence cannot be otherwise regarded than as proof of influence exerted, of progress and success. There will be many more such, and not improbably sufferings unto death, before the light and liberty and joy of the gospel pervade the oriental churches.

The storm which raged among the Armenians at Constantinople, extended to Broosa, and the Greeks were as violent as their neighbors. Books of all kinds, that had been distributed by the mission and could be collected by the priesthood, were committed to the flames. Such things cannot always be.

Mr. Jackson was expected to remove to Erzeroom during the summer, to commence a new station there. Erzeroom is in the native country of the Armenians.

MISSION TO CYPRUS.

LARNICA.—Lorenzo W. Pease, James L. Thompson, and Daniel Ladd, Missionaries; Mrs. Pease and Mrs. Ladd.—One native helper.

(1 station; 3 missionaries, 2 female assistant missionaries, and 1 native helper;—total, 6.)

It is not found to be best to relinquish this mission at present, as it was proposed to do in the last Report. More than 3,000 books and tracts were distributed during the year 1838.

A regular preaching service has been commenced in Greek, which a few Greeks attend. The archbishop of the island appears to be a man of liberal views. He entertained the members of the mission with apparent cordiality for three days, in June of last year, at his monastery in Nicosia. There they were happy to find the books published by the Board freely used in the archbishop's school. They were eagerly pressed for books by the inmates of the archiepiscopate, and every evening they had preaching and prayers in Greek.

A scene of great interest was presented, somewhat more than a year since, on occasion of the funeral of a child of Mr. Pease. The funeral was attended in the Greek church, the Greek priests leading the way in the procession, chanting the funeral dirge, in which there was nothing exceptionable; but in compliance with Mr. Pease's wishes, they left the cross, the cherubims, the incense, etc., at home. The church was almost filled with Greeks, and when stillness was obtained, the bereaved father stood up and addressed them extemporaneously in the Greek tongue. It was a happy moment. Several wept, and all gave the closest attention.

MISSION TO SYRIA AND THE HOLY LAND.

* BEYROUT.—William M. Thomson and Story Hebard, Missionaries; Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Hebard; and Miss Betsey Tilden, Teacher.—Two native helpers.

JERUSALEM.—John F. Lanneau, Missionary.—One native helper.

On a visit to the United States.—Isaac Bird, Eli Smith, and George B. Whiting, Missionaries; Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Whiting.

On their way.—Elias R. Beadle and Charles S. Sherman, Missionaries; Mrs. Beadle and Mrs. Sherman.

(2 stations; 8 missionaries, 7 female assistant missionaries, and 3 native helpers;—total, 18.)

Mr. and Mrs. Bird are still detained by the ill health of Mrs. Bird. Mr. and Mrs. Whiting have visited this country with the approbation of the Committee, in consequence of the impaired health of Mrs. Whiting. The Committee also thought it expedient for Mr. Smith to return from Germany to Syria by way of the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Beadle embarked on the 14th of June, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman on the 17th of July, going by way of Smyrna.

Mr. Smith's tour, in company with Professor Robinson, from Egypt through Arabia, by way of Sinai, Akabah, and Beersheba, to Jerusalem, was highly prosperous in the results for which it was undertaken. For his account of the Bedaween tribes which fell under his observation, the Board is referred to the Missionary Herald. Returning to Smyrna in July of last year, he took with him the punches, which had been cut by Mr. Hallock for the Arabic type, and proceeded to Leipzig, in Germany, where the moulds were prepared and a large fount cast by Tauchnitz. There is believed to be no other fount in existence, unless it be one cast in Persia by a native of that country, which is conformed to Arabic caligraphy, or adapted to the taste of the Arabs.

The printing during the year 1838, was 555 pages numbering the books in a continuous series, 9,500 copies, and 1,044,000 pages in the whole. A printer is greatly needed. Fierce opposition is made by the ecclesiastical rulers of the country to the distribution of the books, but the people are anxious to receive them. Small portions of Scripture are found to be the most acceptable tracts that can be printed.

The seminary, under Mr. Hebard's superintendence, promises to be an instrument of much good. It is desirable that a greater amount of funds be employed in this department. What a blessing might be expected to attend the labors of a pious and competent native agency, were such at this time in all parts of the mountains of Lebanon!

The Arabic congregation on the Sabbath is from 50 to 100. Four adult Druzes, and ten Druze children, and three other children have been baptized, making seventeen baptisms in all. There have been seven admissions to the church. Others give some evidence of piety, and have applied for admission.

The past year has been signalized by an extraordinary religious excitement among the Druzes, a sort of heretical Mohammedans, numbering sixty or seventy thousand souls. Their religion appears to be a compound of Mohammedanism, Christianity, and Paganism. For many months these people have been applying to our brethren for religious instruction from all parts of Lebanon. Not a few have come down to Beyroot to receive it. At the latest dates, Mr. Thomsom had a class of thirty Druzes organized and under religious instruction. This people has long been noted for deception on matters appertaining to religion, and their motives in the present case are believed to have been in part to secure some apprehended political immunities by making a christian profession. But it is not easy to account in this manner for all that has been seen; and at any rate, it calls for devout gratitude to Him who gives the hearing ear and the willing mind, when a whole people, from any cause, place themselves in the way of hearing the gospel.

It has for some time been desirable that the mission should form a station at Tripoli, or Ladakia, with special reference to the Ansareea, a more numerous, though less civilized, people than the Druzes. Such a reinforcement of the mission is expected to proceed during the autumn, as will render it possible to accomplish this desirable object.

MISSION TO THE NESTORIANS.

OOROOMIAH.—Justin Perkins and Albert L. Holladay, Missionaries; Asahel Grant, M. D., Physician; William R. Stocking, Teacher; Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Holladay, and Mrs. Stocking.—Eight native helpers.

On the way.—Willard Jones, Missionary, and Mrs. Jones.

(1 station; 3 missionaries, 1 physician, 1 teacher, 4 female assistant missionaries, and 8 native helpers;—total, 17.)

Mrs. Grant was called away by death January 14th. On the 17th of July Mr. and Mrs. Jones sailed from Boston. Three of the eight helpers in the mission are bishops, two are priests, and three are deacons. The press has not yet been put into operation, for want of a printer. Books are multiplied by the pen, as in the days of manuscripts, and the work moves heavily of course. The seminary contains 50 scholars, and there is a boarding school of 16 girls. Three free schools contain 70 pupils. The average congregation on the Sabbath is 65. The seminary is yet in its incipient state, but it is full of promise, should the Spirit come down upon the hearts of its members. At least two of them are from the heart of the Koordish mountains, which is at present inaccessible to the missionary. A person totally blind from cataract came to Doct. Grant from that distant region, and returned partially seeing. The Nestorians have increasing confidence in the missionaries, and in the results of their labors.

The climate of Ooroomiah was so unfavorable to Doct. Grant's health, that the Committee instructed him to commence, if possible, a station among the Nestorians west of the Koordish mountains. This was before the death of Mrs. Grant.

Mr. Homes, of the mission in Turkey, was to accompany him on the preliminary tour of exploration, and assist him in the preliminary measures till an associate should arrive. An all-wise Providence, in removing Mrs. Grant, has rendered the speedy execution of this plan doubtful; and more recent information makes it questionable whether orthodox Nestorians among whom a residence will be safe, will be found westward of the mountains. However, Doct. Grant was at Constantinople in April, in pursuance of his instructions, from whence he commenced his tour to Mesopotamia in May, going by way of Trebizond and Erzerum. Mr. Homes was to follow him in a few days. Whether the object originally proposed be accomplished, or not, a tour over the contemplated route, should the Head of the Church be pleased to guard the lives of his servants, must be productive of much valuable information. It was not desired that these brethren should venture at present among the wild Koords of the mountains.

MISSION TO THE MOHAMMEDANS OF PERSIA.

James L. Merrick, Missionary, and Mrs. Merrick.

Mr. Merrick was married on the 11th of March to Miss Emma Taylor, a respectable and pious lady from Portsmouth, England, residing at Tabreez. In September, a year ago, he received a firman from the governor of Aderbaijan, authorizing him to open a school at Tabreez for any who should be desirous of attending. The case being referred to the Committee, it seemed clear that the Board could not engage for the support of a school, where it would be regarded a violation of good faith to teach the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ directly to the pupils.

It is an interesting fact, that Tabreez contains a printing-office, in which the presses and type were made by a self-taught Persian, and which is wrought, patronized, and sustained wholly by native Persians. The page that is here printed is nearly a fac-simile of the neatest manuscript. There are also two lithographic presses in operation, with stones of Tabreez marble. The establishment was about sending forth a large work of universal history, and is a day-star of hope in that dark land.

MISSION TO THE MAHRATTAS.

BOMBAY.—D. O. Allen, Missionary; Elijah A. Webster, Printer; Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Webster.—One native helper.

AHMEDNUGGUR.—Henry Ballantine, Missionary; Amos Abbott, Teacher; Mrs. Ballantine and Mrs. Abbott.—Two native helpers.

MALCOLM-PETH.—Allen Graves, Missionary, and Mrs. Graves.

JALNA.—Sendol B. Munger, Missionary, and Mrs. Munger.

On a visit to this Country.—George W. Boggs, Missionary, and Mrs. Boggs.

On their way.—Ebenezer Burgess, Ozro French, and Robert O. Hume, Missionaries; Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. French, and Mrs. Hume; and Miss Cynthia Farrar, Teacher.

(4 stations; 8 missionaries, 1 teacher, 1 printer, 11 female assistant missionaries, and 3 native helpers;—total, 24.)

The company named above as being on their way to the mission, sailed on the 1st of April. Miss Farrar is returning to the mission. Mr. and Mrs. Boggs came home on account of the failure of Mrs. Boggs's health. Mr. Hubbard was recalled by the Committee, and his connection with the Board has been dissolved. Mr. Stone's connection has also been dissolved.

There is now a mail every month between Bombay and England by way of Egypt. Letters have gone by this route from Boston to Bombay in two months and a half. A ship going to India round the Cape of Good Hope, might find intelligence awaiting her arrival two months later than the date of her departure from the United States. Who can look on the recent progress of steam carriage on land and water, and not see its auspicious bearing on the propagation of Christianity?

The four stations in this mission should be regarded as being virtually so many distinct missions, so far as impression on the native mind and success are concerned. Ahmednuggur is 150 miles from Bombay, and was not occupied as a station until seventeen years after the commencement of operations in the latter place. Jalna, which was occupied quite recently, is 120 miles from Ahmednuggur, and nearly 300 from Bombay. Malcolm-Peth is remote from either of the others, upon the Ghauts, towards the south. What is done at one station exerts no influence upon the people at the other stations. So far as nearly the whole field now cultivated among the Mahrattas is concerned, our mission may be said to date its history back no farther than the year 1831, instead of the year 1814, and to be one of the more recent missions, rather than the first established by the Board. At the same time it is among a people who had before enjoyed no previous christian influence whatever.

The Board have increasing reason for gratitude to God, that the steps of its missionaries were directed to Ahmednuggur. There is cheering evidence at this station that our labor is not in vain in the Lord. A promising young brahmin named Hurripunt was baptized in April, and an elder brother in May. Their family is highly respectable, and they are connected with the principal brahminic families in the place. In consequence of these things, the brahmins held a great council, and decreed that none of their caste should serve or have any dealings with the missionaries, on pain of expulsion from the order. This had a great influence for a short time. But in a few days several of the brahmins who had left the mission returned, and some new brahmins offered their services.

The station at Jalna has had a prosperous beginning. There is a boarding-school of 15 boys supported by benevolent English residents, who besides contribute liberally to support six free schools. The missionary preaches the gospel in his house and by the way side. At Ahmednuggur were seven common schools, 20 girls in the female boarding-school, and about 50 lads in the seminary. Messrs. Boggs and Ballantine preached alternately in Mahratta on the Sabbath.

MADRAS MISSION.

ROYAPOORUM.—Miron Winslow, Missionary, and Mrs. Winslow.—Two native helpers.

CHINTADREFETTAH.—John Scudder, M. D., Missionary, and Mrs. Scudder.—One native helper.

On the way.—Phineas R. Hunt, Printer, and Mrs. Hunt.

(2 stations; 2 missionaries—one of them a physician, 1 printer, 3 female assistant missionaries, and 3 native helpers;—total, 9.)

Mr. Winslow was married September 12th to Miss Anne Spiers, daughter of a gentleman formerly connected with the Madras medical service. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt sailed July 30th. Mr. Hunt was prepared to superintend a type foundry, as well as a printing-office.

A printing establishment has been advantageously purchased at Madras, consisting of eight iron printing-presses, a lithographic press, an hydraulic press, and fifteen founts of English, Tamul and Telooogo type, to which a fount of Hindoostanee type has since been added. The establishment includes also a type-foundry and book-bindery. This enables the mission to enter immediately, so far as funds will permit, upon the work for which it was chiefly commenced.

The establishment was transferred in June of last year. Mr. Winslow had previously visited Jaffna.

There are 16 schools in the mission, containing 500 pupils. The average congregation at each station on the Sabbath, is about 250. Doct. Scudder makes itinerating his principal duty. Not less than 18,000 portions of the Scriptures and 30,000 tracts were distributed in 1838.

MADURA MISSION.

MADURA.—Daniel Poor and F. D. W. Ward, Missionaries; Mrs. Poor and Mrs. Ward.—Ten native helpers.

DINDIGAL.—Robert O. Dwight and J. J. Lawrence, Missionaries; Mrs. Dwight and Mrs. Lawrence.—Francis Asbury, Native Preacher, and seven native helpers.

SEVAGUNGA.—Edward Cope, Missionary, and Mrs. Cope.—Two native helpers.

TEROOFOOVANUM.—Nathaniel M. Crane, Missionary, and Mrs. Crane.—One native helper.

TEROOMUNGALUM.—Clarendon F. Muzzy and William Tracy, Missionaries; Mrs. Muzzy and Mrs. Tracy.—Two native helpers.

Stations not known.—Henry Cherry, Missionary; John Steele, M. D., Physician; Mrs. Steele.

(5 stations; 9 missionaries, 1 physician, 9 female assistant missionaries, and 1 native preacher, and 22 native helpers;—total, 42.)

The four last named of these stations are situated on as many different great roads leading from Madura as the centre.

Doct. Steele being threatened with consumption, made a voyage to Singapore, from which he received benefit. He was accompanied by Mr. Cherry. Mr. Todd's health and spirits had suffered so much, that a visit to his native land became highly desirable. He arrived June 19th, with his three children; and has since, at his own request, been honorably released from his connection with the Board.

Francis Asbury was licensed to preach the gospel in October. The brethren of the mission, who are sufficiently conversant with the language to preach in it, take every opportunity to perform this important duty. What is called expository preaching, with a free use of interrogatories, is found to be most useful. A church was formed at Dindigal in July, 1837.

There are two boarding-schools at Dindigal. The one for boys contains 28 pupils; that for girls, which is supported by English ladies, contains 10. There are 64 free schools, with 1,828 scholars. Popery, as it exists among the natives of South India, is more hostile to the true light, than are the heathen themselves. Many books have been distributed. The prospects of the mission were never more promising. The whole land is open to the christian missionary.

MISSION TO CEYLON.

TILLIPALLY.—Benjamin C. Meigs, Missionary, and Mrs. Meigs.—Ten native helpers.

BATTICOTTA.—James Read Eckard and Henry R. Hoisington, Missionaries; Nathan Ward, M. D., Physician; Mrs. Eckard, Mrs. Hoisington, and Mrs. Ward.—Henry Martyn and Seth Payson, Native Preachers, and sixteen native helpers.

OODOOVILLE.—Levi Spaulding, Missionary, and Mrs. Spaulding.—Nathaniel Niles, Native Preacher, and seven native helpers.

PANDITERIPO.—(Vacant).—Two native helpers.

MANEPI.—Eastman Strong Minor, Printer.—Four native helpers.

CHAVAGACHERY.—Samuel Hutchings, Missionary, and Mrs. Hutchings.—Charles A. Goodrich, Native Preacher, and five native helpers.

VARANY.—George H. Apthorp, Missionary, and Mrs. Apthorp.—Four native helpers.

Six out-stations.

On their way.—Miss Eliza Agnew, Miss Sarah F. Brown, and Miss Jane E. Lathrop.

(7 stations and 6 out-stations; 6 missionaries, 1 physician, 1 printer, 10 female assistant missionaries, 4 native preachers, and 48 native helpers;—total, 70.)

The mission kept a day of special thanksgiving when they heard that the churches had enabled the Committee to relieve them from their embarrassments. Another grant for the schools of £200 has been generously made by the Ceylon government. The schools, however, have been as yet only partially renewed. So much ruin could not be repaired at once. The system will be improved. There are 51 free schools, containing 1,824 scholars. Before the reduction, there were 187 schools, and about 7,000 scholars. Nineteen of the schoolmasters are members of the church. The number of boarding scholars in the mission is 260; 95 of these are females, in the schools at Oodooville and Varany; 148 are lads in the seminary at Batticotta, and 17 in the school preparatory to the seminary. The whole number in the schools is therefore 2,084. A class of 44 boys was received into the seminary in October. Twenty-eight pupils in the female boarding-schools and fifty-eight in the seminary are members of the church. The number of native members in the mission churches, is 319.

The printing establishment at Manepy has four presses in use, and employs 70 natives. The volumes printed in the year 1838, were 39,000; the tracts, 493,000; the pages in Tamul, 17,643,200; the pages from the beginning, 45,440,600. The volumes bound were 25,463.

Three female assistant missionaries have been sent forth in compliance with a request from the mission.

MISSION TO SIAM.

BANKOK.—Charles Robinson, Dan B. Bradley, M. D., and Samuel P. Robbins, Missionaries; Stephen Tracy, M. D., Physician; Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Robbins, and Mrs. Tracy.

On their way.—Nathan S. Benham, Jesse Caswell, H. S. G. French, Asa Hemenway, and Lyman B. Peet, Missionaries; Mrs. Benham, Mrs. Caswell, Mrs. French, Mrs. Hemenway, and Mrs. Peet, Mary E. Pierce, and Judith M. Taylor.

On a visit to this Country.—Stephen Johnson, Missionary.

(1 station; 9 missionaries—one of them a physician and one a printer, 1 physician, and 11 female assistant missionaries;—total, 21.)

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson returned to this country in consequence of the failure of Mrs. Johnson's health. They arrived at Philadelphia December 7th, where Mrs. Johnson died unexpectedly, but in the joyful hope of the gospel, on the 8th of January. Doct. Bradley was ordained as a minister of the gospel in November.

The printing from January 1st to December 1st, 1838, was 21,700 copies and 588,500 pages. That from the beginning, has been 40,300 copies, and 1,456,200 pages. The printed books in a continuous series, contain 561 pages.

The mission is with much reason encouraged in view of present providential facilities and the prospective openings for usefulness.

MISSION TO CHINA.

CANTON.—Elijah C. Bridgman, David Abeel, and Peter Parker, M. D., Missionaries.

MACAO.—S. Wells Williams, Printer.

On the way.—William B. Diver, M. D., Physician.

(2 stations; 3 missionaries—one of them a physician, 1 physician, and 1 printer;—total, 5.)

Mr. Abeel embarked on his return to China October 17th. Doct. Diver embarked May 8th. The report acknowledges great obligations to Messrs. Olyphant & Co. for repeated gratuitous passages afforded to the missionaries of the Board, and for liberal kindnesses bestowed on missionaries residing in different parts of the great Chinese field.

The members of the mission have been employed as in years past—in studying the formidable language of the great empire; in translating; in printing; in gaining the reluctant confidence of the people by healing the sick; in training those whom God may please to make their future native helpers in the work of missions; and in collecting and diffusing information respecting the vast field, so little known hitherto. Two volumes have been published in this country, though not by the Board, during the past year, containing a history of the voyage of the "Morrison" to Japan, and the voyage of the "Himmaleh" in the Archipelago,—the former prepared by a partner in the house which owned the vessels; the latter, by an agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

The Chinese government is now engaged in a determined, arduous, and it may be hoped successful struggle to put an end to the further importation, sale, and use of opium among its subjects. China has yet to learn that the world is too full of motion and enterprise—reckless, fearless enterprise,—to permit her much longer to exist in her insulated, self-confident, haughty, insulting posture. She must acknowledge herself as belonging to the family of nations, and come into that family, or be ruined. Perhaps the opium trade will teach her that lesson. Thus a great and most desirable good may, in the wonders of divine Providence, come out of a most lamentable, terrible evil,—worse, if possible, than the introduction, sale and use of ardent spirits.

MISSION TO SINGAPORE.

Ira Tracy, James T. Dickinson, Joseph S. Travelli, Dyer Ball, M. D., and George W. Wood, Missionaries; and Alfred North, Printer; Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Travelli, Mrs. Ball, and Mrs. North.

On a visit to this Country.—Matthew B. Hope, M. D., Missionary.

(1 station; 6 missionaries—two of them physicians, 1 printer, and 4 female assistant missionaries;—total, 11.)

This mission was commenced on a scale and with expectations, which subsequent events and researches in the neighboring Archipelago may perhaps not fully justify. But at the time it was projected and begun, the Committee had no reason whatever to question the substantial correctness of the information then before them. Indeed, who could have foreseen the extraordinary stand since taken by the government of Netherlands India?—though the Committee cannot now believe that this exclusive and illiberal policy will be rigorously persisted in by the colonial government, or countenanced by the supreme authority in the parent country to which the case is about being submitted. All the islands south of the Philippines and east of Java and Borneo, are either possessed by the Dutch, or else they are so far accessible only through Dutch ports that it would probably be impossible to keep up a sufficiently regular communication, except through these channels, to answer the purposes of a mission. Bali, Lombok, Sumbawa, the Arroo Islands, and others, are in this latter condition. Mr. Dickinson estimates the number of Chinese in the Archipelago at less than 300,000, and not more than 50,000 or 60,000 of these are at present accessible to us. The Committee think that in determining the proportionate attention which should be given to the different parts of the heathen world, great regard should be had to the opportunities afforded for the stated and unrestrained preaching of the gospel. Where there cannot be such preaching, the press is not employed to the best advantage in distributing the word of God. At present the missionaries in southeastern Asia and the Indian Archipelago meet with formidable barriers on every hand in the way of their present labors.

At Singapore the word is not bound by the enactments of a jealous and unfriendly government. Missionaries may preach the gospel to any, whom they can persuade to hear them. Perhaps no better place can be found at present in that part of the world for acquiring the principal spoken languages, and for a seminary where native helpers may, with divine aid, be reared.

The infant seminary appears to have commenced auspiciously. The year 1838 began with fifteen scholars, and ended with twenty-two. They are boarding-schoolers. The leading objects in the school, next to the immediate conversion of the pupils, have been to impart to them a knowledge of the English language, and to discipline their minds. The members of the mission feel great confidence that their labors in the seminary are not in vain. A female boarding-school has been commenced, but it is yet on a very small scale.

A particular account of the printing has not been received. It was less than in the previous year, but equal to the demand. In the foundry, Mr. North has improved the Malay fount of type, and enlarged the old Siamese fount and begun to cut punches for a new one.

Mr. Dickinson's health made a voyage to Canton necessary. He remained there a number of months, and his health became nearly restored. On the 9th of March, the mission suffered a painful bereavement by the death of Mrs. Wood. Her health was good up to the day of her unexpected decease, which had no apparent connection with her change of country and climate. Her memory is blessed with that of all the pious dead, who die in the Lord.

MISSION TO BORNEO.

ELIHU DOTY, Jacob Ennis, Elbert Nevius, William Youngblood, Frederick B. Thomson, and William J. Pohlman, Missionaries; Mrs. Doty, Mrs. Ennis, Mrs. Nevius, Mrs. Youngblood, Mrs. Thomson, and Mrs. Pohlman; and Miss Azuba C. Condit, Teacher.

(6 missionaries, and 7 female assistant missionaries;—total, 13.)

At length there is a prospect, through the gracious favor of our Lord and Savior, that this mission will find a home and a permanent field of labor in Netherlands India. And so far as yet appears, their field is one of the more promising in that part of the world, though still of such a nature that our faith and patience may be long tried before we are allowed the joy of putting in the sickle. But the promise of reaping if we faint not, is sure.

Messrs. Thomson and Pohlman arrived at Singapore about the middle of September. They found Mr. Doty there, who soon proceeded with Mr. Pohlman to examine the district on Borneo between the Sambas and Pontiana rivers, which it was proposed to make the sphere of labor for their mission. They spent a month on this ground, making a circuit of 170 miles, and going about 60 miles into the interior, and returned to Singapore on the 3d of December.

Just at that time Messrs. Youngblood and Nevius and their families were on the point of leaving Batavia to join their brethren at Singapore, expecting to proceed forthwith to Borneo.

Meanwhile Mr. and Mrs. Ennis had been exploring another part of the Archipelago little known to the churches, and not subject to the Dutch government, situated eastward of Java. Leaving Batavia June 12th, 1838, they visited the island of Bali, going by way of Surabaya. They also visited Macassar, on the island of Celebes, hoping to get from thence to the independent Bugis, in the northern parts of the island; but they were forbidden by the Dutch authorities. Mr. and Mrs. Ennis returned to Bali, where they were at the latest dates.

MISSION TO THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

ON HAWAII.

KAILUA.—Asa Thurston, Missionary; Seth L. Andrews, M. D., Physician; Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. Andrews.

KAAWALOA.—Cochran Forbes, Missionary; William S. Van Duzee, Teacher; Mrs. Forbes and Mrs. Van Duzee.

WAIMEA.—Lorenzo Lyons, Missionary; Horton O. Knapp, Teacher; Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Knapp.

HILO.—David B. Lyman and Titus Coan, Missionaries; Abner Wilcox, Teacher; Mrs. Lyman, Mrs. Coan, and Mrs. Wilcox.

KOHALA.—Isaac Bliss, Missionary; Edward Bailey, Teacher; Mrs. Bliss and Mrs. Bailey.

ON MAUI.

LAHAINA.—Dwight Baldwin, M. D., Missionary; Charles McDonald, Teacher; Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. McDonald.

LAHAINALUNA.—Lottin Andrews and Ephraim W. Clark, Missionaries; Edward H. Rogers, Printer; Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Clark, and Mrs. Rogers.

WAILUKU.—Jonathan S. Green and Richard Armstrong, Missionaries; Mrs. Green and Mrs. Arms, ong.—Miss Lydia Brown and Miss Maria C. Ogden, Teachers.

HANA.—Daniel T. Conde and Mark Ives, Missionaries; Mrs. Conde and Mrs. Ives.

ON MOLOKAI.

KALUAHA.—Harvey R. Hitchcock, Missionary; Bethuel Munn, Teacher; Mrs. Hitchcock and Mrs. Munn.

ON OAHU.

HONOLULU.—Hiram Bingham, Reuben Tinker, and Lowell Smith, Missionaries; Gerrit P. Judd, M. D., Physician; Levi Chamberlain, Secular Superintendent; Samuel N. Castle, Assistant Secular Superintendent; Amos S. Cooke, Teacher; Henry Dimond, Book-binder; Edwin O. Hall, Printer; Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Tinker, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Judd, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Castle, Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Dimond, and Mrs. Hall.

EWA.—Artemas Bishop, Missionary; and Mrs. Bishop.

WAILUA.—John S. Emerson, Missionary; Edwin Locke, Teacher; Mrs. Emerson and Mrs. Locke.

KANEHE.—Benjamin W. Parker, Missionary, and Mrs. Parker.—Miss Marcia M. Smith, Teacher.

ON KAUAI.

WAIMEA.—Samuel Whitney, Missionary, and Mrs. Whitney.

KOLOA.—Peter J. Gulick and Thomas Lafon, M. D., Missionaries; Mrs. Gulick and Mrs. Lafon.

WAIOLI.—William P. Alexander, Missionary; Edward Johnson, Teacher; Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Johnson.

On a visit to this Country.—Ephraim Spaulding and Sheldon Dibble, Missionaries, and Mrs. Spaulding.

(17 stations; 26 missionaries—two of them physicians, 2 physicians, 2 secular superintendents, 9 male teachers, 1 book-binder, 2 printers, and 44 female assistant missionaries;—total, 86.)

The year embraced in the report of this mission, is that from June 1837 to June 1838, in which month the mission holds its annual meeting and prepares its annual statement for the Committee. This was a year of extraordinary gracious visitation. The apparent effect of the preached gospel was great among the people to an extent unparalleled, it is believed, in the history of missions. About 5,000 were received into the churches, and about 2,400 stood propounded for admission, at the end of the year, while many more gave some evidence of piety. The standard of piety was raised in the churches, and their purity promoted. There was an increase of moral courage and of moral power among the members. Religion was revived at every station. Everywhere there was the hearing ear, and, beyond all former experience, the understanding heart and applying conscience. Many children and youth were hopefully converted. The means employed in this glorious work of grace, were those commonly used in this land. The Board will regret the haste with which converts were, to the number of many hundreds, admitted into a few of the churches; though, after every abatement, which any who believe in revivals of religion will deem reasonable, thousands remain, over whom we may give free course to our joy as being hopefully the subjects of God's converting grace and the heirs of heaven.

Just such powerful works of grace as that at the Sandwich Islands, are to be expected in the progress of missions; and they must become frequent, numerous, general in the heathen world, if the conversion of the world be not yet remote. Even now, though the work at the Sandwich Islands is unparalleled in extent, it is so only in that one respect. There are analogous facts in other parts of the heathen world.

The churches at the islands are now seventeen in number. The number of church members in June of last year, was about 6,000.

It is of immense importance that the people be taught very speedily, not only how to live so as to secure, individually, the salvation of their souls, but how to improve their social condition. They can raise cotton and silk; their soil can support a million of inhabitants; their climate is one of the best in the world; and their rulers are anxious to improve their system of government. But the rulers do not know how to change their system of government for a better. The people are imperfectly clothed; nineteen-twentieths of their land lies untilld; and the population is yet diminishing from disease as the result of foreign intercourse in past times. It is not easy to see how the Hawaiian nation can speedily be put in possession of the substantial blessings of Christianity and civilization, without in effect colonizing the islands with a foreign people, and so in the end rooting out the natives themselves.

One point of difficulty has, in the good providence of God, been unexpectedly surmounted. On the return of Mr. Richards, the king and chiefs requested him to become their chaplain, teacher, and interpreter, engaging to provide for his support. He felt it to be his duty to comply with their wishes; and in this he had the approbation of his brethren, and he has that of the Committee. Mr. Richards was desirous that his connection with the Board might continue, but it appeared to the Committee that he would best accomplish his object if it should not.

Certain resolutions of the Committee are given in the Report, the object of which is to facilitate the placing of the native churches as soon as possible on the footing of many of the churches in our own new settlements—the Board engaging to pay a part of the missionary's salary, on condition that the native church, of which he is the pastor, pays the residue.

There are 8,000 or 9,000 pupils in the common schools, taught by natives; 2,300 in the station schools, taught by missionaries or missionary teachers, aided by natives; 31 boys in the boarding-school at Hilo; 33 girls in the female seminary at Wailuku; and 58 boys in the seminary at Lahainaluna.

The amount of printing during the year was 1,681 pages of distinct matter, and 17,746,650 pages in the whole. There have been 83,284,857 pages printed from the beginning.

Mr. Lyons and Miss Lucia G. Smith have been united in marriage.

The Committee recommend to the attention of the Board a volume lately published by Mr. Dibble, containing a just and interesting view of this mission and also of the people of the Sandwich Islands.

Department of Indian Missions.

MISSION TO THE CHEROKEES.

DWIGHT.—Cephas Washburn, Missionary; James Orr, Farmer and Superintendent of Secular Affairs; Jacob Hitchcock, Steward; Asa Hitchcock, Teacher; Roderic L. Dodge, Physician; Henry K. Copeland, Mechanic; and their wives: Ellen Stetson, Esther Smith, and Maria Theresa Bissell, Teachers and Assistants.

FAIRFIELD.—Marcus Palmer, Physician and Missionary, and Mrs. Palmer.

PARK HILL.—Samuel A. Worcester, Missionary, and Mrs. Worcester; John F. Wheeler, Printer; Nancy Thompson, Assistant; Mary Avery, Teacher.

HONEY CREEK.—John Huss, Native Preacher.

Daniel S. Butrick and William Potter, Missionaries; Elizur Butler, Physician and Missionary; and their wives; Stephen Foreman, Native Preacher; Sophiah Sawyer and Erminia Nash, not yet permanently located.

(4 stations; 6 missionaries—2 of them physicians, 1 physician, 5 male assistant missionaries, 2 native preachers, 18 female teachers and assistants;—total, 32.)

On the last Sabbath in August the Lord's supper was administered at Brainerd by the missionaries for the last time, and this may be regarded as the termination of their labors for the Cherokees before their removal. The Indians were, however, detained in their camps, near the Tennessee river, by a severe drought, till the first of October; soon after which period they started in fourteen companies, of near a thousand each, on an average, for their new country. All the companies, except one, pursued their course by land, through the states of Tennessee, Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri, and Arkansas, a distance of 600 or 700 miles, most of them travelling on foot. Their journey consumed from three and a half to five and a half months, attended, as was of course inevitable, with much suffering and mortality. From the time they were gathered into camps by the United States troops, in May and June, 1838, till the time the last detachment reached the Arkansas country, which was about ten months, a careful estimate shows that not less than 4,000 or 4,500 of them were removed by death, being on an average from thirteen to fifteen deaths in a day for the whole period, out of a population of 16,000, or one fourth of the whole number. It does not appear that this mortality was owing to neglect or bad treatment while on the journey. It was probably necessarily involved in the measure itself, however carefully the arrangements might have been made, or however faithfully executed.

Messrs. Butrick and Potter and Doct. Butler, with their families, together with Miss Nash and Messrs. Foreman and Huss, native preachers, have removed with the Cherokees, with the purpose of prosecuting their labors in the new country. Mr. Chamberlin will wait the further indications of Providence before deciding whether he shall resume his missionary labors. Messrs. Vail and Blunt, though earnestly requested by the Cherokees to accompany them, and still feeling strongly attached to them and to the missionary work, have felt compelled to request to be discharged from further connection with the Board, on account of the ill health of their families. This request has been granted.

The missionaries recently arrived in the Arkansas country, not having yet found it convenient to prepare permanent stations for themselves, are temporarily accommodated at the old stations. Mr. Butrick at Fairfield, Mr. Potter, Doct. Butler, and Miss Nash at Park Hill.

Doct. Dodge has been united in marriage with Miss Bradshaw. Mr. and Mrs. Copeland and Miss Bissell have been appointed assistant missionaries. Mr. and Mrs. Newton have, at their own request, been discharged from their connection with the Board, and left Park-Hill about the close of December, 1838. The impaired health of Mr. Asa Hitchcock has compelled him to request a similar discharge.

The agitated and divided state of the people has seriously interfered with the operations of the mission during the year, and very little has been accomplished. A church of ten members has been organized at Honey Creek, under the pastoral care of Mr. Huss. No admissions to the churches have been communicated, except those by letter from the old nation; and the state of religion has every where been low.

The schools at Dwight have been large and encouraging. That at Fairfield has had twenty or thirty pupils. No information respecting any other has been received.

From the press at Park-Hill have been issued the gospel of John, Cherokee Almanac, and Cherokee Primer, all in the Cherokee language,—amounting to 5,000 copies and 247,000 pages.

The party dissensions which have prevailed have led to most painful scenes of violence and bloodshed; and it is feared that still more distressing scenes may be enacted before these divisions shall be healed and fraternal feeling be restored.

MISSION TO THE CHOCTAWS.

WHEELOCK.—Alfred Wright, Missionary, and Mrs. Wright; Jared Olmstead, Teacher.

STOCKBRIDGE.—Cyrus Byington, Missionary, and Mrs. Byington; Mrs. Barnes, Teacher.

MOUNTAIN FORK.—Abner D. Jones, Teacher, and Mrs. Jones.

WHITE CLAY.—Eunice Clough, Teacher.

PINE RIDGE.—Cyrus Kingsbury, Missionary, and Mrs. Kingsbury; Anna Burnham, Teacher.

GOOD WATER.—Ebenezer Hotchkin, Licensed Preacher, and Mrs. Hotchkin.

(6 stations; 4 missionaries, 2 male and 3 female teachers, and 5 other female assistants;—total, 14.)

Mr. and Mrs. Wood have been compelled by loss of health to retire from the mission. The health of some other members of the mission is much impaired.

To the five churches connected with the mission only two persons are reported as having been added; while death and some instances of backsliding have left the number of those in fellowship less than it was a year ago. The present number is about 205. The congregations remain much the same as heretofore, though less visible effect has been produced by preaching and other means of grace than in some former years. At four preaching places Mr. Kingsbury has an aggregate of 200 or 300 hearers.

Seven schools have been taught most of the year, and the whole number of pupils attending them all was 213, and the average 114.

The Acts of the Apostles, translated by Mr. Byington, is ready for the press. Three small books have just been printed at the mission-press, Park-Hill. Other portions of the New Testament are in a state of forwardness.

MISSION TO THE PAWNEES.

John Dunbar, Missionary, and Mrs. Dunbar; Samuel Allis, Farmer, and Mrs. Allis.

(1 station; 1 missionary, 1 farmer, and 2 female assistants;—total, 4.)

The missionaries still remain near the agency at Bellevue, prevented, by the wandering habits of the Indians, from exerting that direct and steady influence upon them to which a residence among them and uninterrupted access to both adults and children are indispensable. Still large numbers of them often visit the agency, and the missionaries have opportunity to give them some instruction and make some progress in acquiring a knowledge of the language.

Recently the prospect that the Indians will adopt a more settled manner of life, and be furnished with the requisite facilities for tilling the soil, seems more encouraging. Should this most desirable change be effected, the mission ought without delay to be strengthened by the addition of two or three efficient missionaries and assistants; and probably nothing would more contribute to the desired result than such an accession to the strength of the mission.

MISSION TO THE OREGON INDIANS.

KAYUSES.—Marcus Whitman, Physician and Catechist, and Mrs. Whitman; Asa B. Smith, Missionary, and Mrs. Smith.

NEZ PERCES.—Henry H. Spalding, Missionary, and Mrs. Spaulding; William H. Gray, Mechanic and Teacher, and Mrs. Gray; Cornelius Rogers, Mechanic.

COLVILLE.—Cushing Eells and Elkanah Walker, Missionaries; Mrs. Eells and Mrs. Walker.

(3 stations; 4 missionaries, 1 physician, 2 mechanics and teachers, and 6 female assistants;—total, 13.)

Messrs. Eells, Smith, Walker, Gray, and their wives, with Mr. Rogers, arrived at Wallawalla 29th of August, having spent four months on the journey from the western frontier of Missouri.

The missionaries continue to receive the most earnest and affecting applications from the surrounding tribes for missionaries and teachers to reside among them; and almost every where the same inquisitiveness and docility respecting religious truth and duty which met them on their first arrival among these remote tribes, are manifested still. Around the station of Mr. Spalding seventy or eighty Indian families have located themselves; and by their industry in tilling the soil, are contributing much towards the comfortable support of their families. A similar change has been effected at the station of Doct. Whitman; and multitudes more of the Indians seem disposed to adopt a similar course, whenever they can be furnished with the instruction and the other facilities which are requisite.

A year ago a church was organized in the mission to which one Indian and his wife have been admitted. Two children who had resided in the family of Mr. Spalding have died, leaving evidence that they had been born of the Spirit. Congregations are large and increasing, and remarkably attentive and solemn. The Nez Perces school seemed likely to embrace 150 pupils.

MISSION TO THE SIOUX.

LAC QUI PARLE.—Thomas S. Williamson, Missionary and Physician; Stephen R. Riggs, Missionary; Alexander G. Huggins, Farmer; and their wives.

LAKE HARRIET.—Samuel W. Pond, Missionary; Gideon H. Pond, Farmer; and their wives.

(2 stations; 3 missionaries—one of whom is a physician, 2 farmers, and 5 female assistants;—total, 10.)

Mr. Stevens has been appointed farmer, by the United States Agent, for a band of Indians 150 miles below St. Peter's, and has requested a release from his connection with the Board, which has been granted. To Mr. G. H. Pond a similar appointment has been given; but as he is expected still to reside at Lake Harriet, he retains his connection with the Board.

Mr. S. W. Pond has been united in marriage with Miss Eggleston; and Miss Lucy C. Stevens with the Rev. Mr. Gavin of the Swiss mission to the Sioux.

At Lac qui Parle the whole number of pupils attending the schools has been ninety-four, though the average attendance was much less. Of these forty-five could read, and about thirty write tolerably well. Their ages were from seven to thirty-seven. The congregation at this station has increased in numbers, and in serious attention. Ten have been admitted to the church, and eighteen children dedicated to God in baptism.

No definite report has been received from Lake Harriet.

Three books have been printed during the year in the Dakota language, embracing the gospel by Luke; selections from the Old Testament; and selections from the New Testament, making 109,000 pages in all.

MISSION TO THE OJIBWAS.

LA POINTE.—Sherman Hall, Missionary, and Mrs. Hall; Grenville T. Sproat, Teacher and Catechist, and Mrs. Sproat.

FON DU LAC.—Edmund F. Ely, Teacher and Catechist, and Mrs. Ely.

POKEGUMA.—William T. Boutwell, Missionary, and Mrs. Boutwell; Frederic Ayer, Catechist, and Mrs. Ayer; John L. Seymour, Mechanic and Teacher, and Mrs. Seymour; Sabrina Stevens.

(3 stations; 2 missionaries, 4 teachers and catechists, and 7 females;—total, 13.—)

In the school at La Pointe some improvement is observable, both as to numbers and proficiency. A number of the Indians are now able to read portions of the Scriptures in their own language intelligently and profitably. At Fon du Lac the school has been suspended a large part of the year, on account of the absence of the Indians usually residing there. At Pokeguma also a school has been taught but a small portion of the year, owing to disaffection, and manifestations of uncommon violence and savage feelings on the part of the Indians, arising from peculiar causes in operation during the early part of the year, not originating, however, in the proceedings of the missionaries. More recently the Indians have resumed their former friendliness, and all the operations of the station are going forward with as favorable prospects as at any former period.

Only three Indians have been added to the churches in connection with this mission, and those at Pokeguma. At La Pointe the congregation and church remain nearly as heretofore. Changes in the population, and in the employment of the Indians, have exerted some unfavorable influence, and removed the Indians, both at La Pointe and Fon du Lac, more without the reach of the missionaries. On this account the latter station has been abandoned during the past summer, and Mr. Ely removed to Pokeguma.

MISSION TO THE STOCKBRIDGE INDIANS.

Cutting Marsh, Missionary, and Mrs. Marsh; Sophia Mudgett, Teacher.

(1 station; 1 missionary, and 2 female assistants;—total, 3.)

Two schools have been taught embracing from thirty-five to forty pupils.

During a period of unusual attention to religious instruction last winter, five or six were hopefully born of the Spirit, and four have since been received into the church. Meetings are still well attended, as is also the Sabbath school, in which are a large portion of the congregation.

Much agitation and division of sentiment respecting their political affairs prevail among the people. In their private affairs industry and improvement are observable, and they are generally prosperous.

MISSION TO NEW-YORK INDIANS.

TUSCARORA.—Gilbert Rockwood, Missionary and Teacher, and Mrs. Rockwood; Hannah T. Whitcomb, Teacher.

SENECA.—Asher Wright, Missionary, and Mrs. Wright; Asenath Bishop, Teacher.

CATTARAUGUS.—Asher Bliss, Missionary, and Mrs. Bliss; Fideha Adams, Teacher.

ALLEGHANY.—William Hall, Licensed Preacher and Teacher, and Mrs. Hall.

4 stations; 3 missionaries, 1 licensed preacher, 7 females;—total, 11.)

On the four reservations nine schools have been taught for a longer or shorter period, embracing from 100 to 120 pupils. Sixteen Indians have been admitted to the fellowship of the church at Tuscarora. To the other churches there have been no accessions; and for a large part of the year, as during the two or three previous years, they have suffered to a most painful degree from alienation and strife. The church at Seneca has been the most deeply afflicted, and for more than a year and a half, the missionary thought it inexpedient to administer the Lord's supper. Disorders and scandal prevailed which no discipline could remedy. Nothing but the Spirit of the Lord can restore order and mutual love.

In their secular affairs the Indians on some of the reservations seem to have been unusually industrious and successful.

MISSION TO THE ABERNAQUIS.

P. P. Osunkherhine, Native Preacher; Caroline Rankin, Teacher.

(1 station; 1 native preacher, and 1 female teacher;—total, 2.)

The congregation is steadily increasing, and amounts to more than sixty, about a fourth of whom are white persons, and the remainder are Indians who have renounced the papal faith. Among them the reformation as to moral character and industry, has been great.

The school contains about twenty pupils, for the support of which the people have raised $50.

To the church, now embracing twenty-four Indian members and four whites, fifteen having been added during the year.

The papal opposition is still continued, but with little effect.

Summary.

The receipts of the Board during the year, have been $244,169.82, exceeding those of the year closing July 31st, 1838 by $7,998.84. The debt of the Board has been reduced to $19,173.09. The missions under the care of the Board are 26; embracing 77 stations; at which are laboring 136 ordained missionaries, nine of whom are physicians, 9 physicians not preachers, 19 teachers, 11 printers and bookbinders, 9 other male and 191 female assistant missionaries;—in all 375 missionary laborers from this country, who, with 9 native preachers and 98 other native helpers, make the whole number of persons laboring at the several missions under the patronage of the Board and depending on the Treasury for support, 481. Of these, 12 ordained missionaries, 3 male and 21 female assistant missionaries, in all 36, have been sent forth during the year now closed.

The number of printing establishments is 14; of presses 24; of type founderies 4; of churches 52; of church members 7,311; of seminaries 7, containing 363 pupils; of boarding schools 10, containing 344 pupils; of free schools about 350, containing about 16,000 pupils; of books and tracts printed, about 847,000 copies, and about 33,000,000 pages the past year; and from the beginning, not less than 200,000,000 of pages.

STATISTICAL VIEW OF THE OFFICERS, MISSIONS, AND MISSIONARIES OF THE BOARD.

THE following items of information have been selected and arranged, and are inserted here, that they may be conveniently referred to by any who desire to obtain such knowledge respecting the missions under the direction of the Board or the persons connected with them. Much care has been exercised in collecting and arranging the items, and they are as complete as the materials at command would permit. Missionaries and others will confer a favor, if when they find mistakes or deficiencies, they will, by writing or otherwise, furnish the means of making corrections.

It will be seen that the missionaries and assistant missionaries are arranged under the missions with which they have been connected. The missions are given in the geographical order in which they are arranged in the annual report.

Of the women who have died, the average age when they entered the service of the Board was	25		26

(*) This includes thirty-three names. The three omitted, for want of information, are Mr. Montgomery of the Osages, Doct. Satterlee of the Pawnees, and Mr. Ambler of the Stockbridge mission.

(†) Including forty names, and omitting the following twelve:—Mrs. Poor and Mrs. Hall of Ceylon, Mrs. Johnson of Siam, Mrs. Finney, Mrs.

The youngest who has died in the service of the Board, was Mrs. Harriet Newell, soon after she had entered on her twentieth year; and she was also the first that died. The eldest, by several years, was the Rev. Ard Hoyt, in his fifty-eighth year, who entered the service in his forty-eighth year. The next in age entered the service at nearly the same period of life. Three others, out of the eighty-eight, reached the age of forty.

It will be seen that the average terms of service of the men and women who have been released, are the same. The difference is not six hours, although there are one hundred and sixty-nine different periods of service, out of the two hundred and thirty-four, which compose the two classes.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE MISSIONS.

Ceylon.

GENERAL LETTER FROM THE MISSION,
DATED JUNE 12TH, 1839.

Causes of increased Labor and Responsibility in the Mission.

THE object of this letter is to show in what manner, when a mission is successful, the labors and responsibility of the missionaries are, for a long period, increased very nearly in proportion to the progress and success of their plans; pure that, consequently, the very fact that the divine blessing prospers the labors of the mission, constitutes a reason, in all ordinary cases, why it should be furnished with an increased number of laborers, and with larger pecuniary allowances. Different as this may be from the common expectations of the friends of missions, a little consideration will render it obvious to all.

1. The increase of church members makes an addition to our responsibilities and cares. How numerous and trying are the cares of a faithful pastor in America! Yet they have but a distant approximation to the care of a foreign missionary over his flock. In a christian land the pastor is aided and encouraged by the interest and sympathy of many of his people. The missionary, on the other hand, is constrained to feel that he is a foreigner and among strangers. The flock he feeds, is weak and ignorant and prejudiced, and is surrounded by ravenous wolves seeking whom they may devour. He is troubled by the often repeated story of their worldly cares and sorrows, and frequently disappointed in his best devices for their good. It is not easy for any people to lay aside their old habits and form new ones; and among the Hindoos there is a peculiar aversion to change. Some of the practices of heathenism are so intimately connected with the national customs of the people, that it is difficult to shew their unlawfulness from scripture authority. Hence the cares of a missionary are increased by additions to the church, as the cares of a mother are increased by a growing family of sickly children.

2. Our cares and responsibilities are increased by the increase of our native assistants. They enable us to extend our influence among the people, but are themselves a source of responsibility and care. It is often remarked, We do not know what we should do without their assistance; while at the same time we lament that they are no better fitted for their work. They have imperfect conceptions of the holy character of Christianity, and have imbibed from their youth many erroneous principles, which are not easily eradicated. Hence they cannot be confided in, out of certain limits, and require constantly a sort of parental supervision. We consider it very desirable that a distinct course of mental and moral training should be pursued for their improvement. Something of the kind has been attempted with encouraging prospects.

3. Our native free schools, and particularly our English schools, in order to be made efficient and useful, require much of a missionary's time and attention. They add their quota to the list of duties and cares.

4. There is a large class of youth, formerly taught in our schools, scattered in different villages among their heathen friends, who have considerable knowledge of the Bible, and can read well. They are the fruits of our system of labor, and we feel a special interest in their welfare. But they are of necessity almost entirely neglected. If they could be sought out, and conversed with, and invited to call on the missionary, it is highly probable that many of them would be rescued from a course of sin and saved. Sometime ago efforts were made to find the females of this class who had been taught in the schools at Manepy. Forty-four were found, twenty-seven of whom were married. They were supplied with portions of Scripture, which they received with apparent pleasure, and were exhorted to walk according to the instruction they had received.

5. Adults are better prepared by their increasing knowledge of Christianity and unbelief in their own systems to hear and understand the truth, and also to become savingly acquainted with it, than they formerly were. But where are the men to labor among them? So many other duties rest upon us, especially upon those best qualified for this kind of labor, that but a small portion of time can be devoted to them. Transient and occasional labors do not promise much. To do any thing effectually for their welfare, a man should be free from the distraction produced by a great variety of cares, and should be devoted to this work. Their hearts are hard as the rock, and the fire and the hammer must be applied with unremitted diligence to break them in pieces.

6. The female boarding school at Oodoville demands increasing time and attention. No part of our system of labor affords us more gratification than this. No part has been attended with greater success. The budding influences of piety are here carefully matured, and religious feeling and principle are cultivated under auspices more favorable for their appropriate development, than those enjoyed by any other class of beneficiaries connected with the mission. It never was more important and interesting than at the present time, and never did the interests of the institution require so much labor and care as now.

7. The wives of our native assistants, especially those who have been educated in the female boarding school, are often spoken of as a class requiring instruction and care. We regard their children as possessing eminent advantages, in comparison with others, for being hereafter useful helpers in the mission. The number of this class is not large, but it is constantly increasing and will eventually form, as was remarked in a former communication, the nucleus of permanent christian communities.

8. The seminary on its present plan urgently requires and richly deserves a much greater amount of missionary labor, than can now be given to it. As special mention was made of the wants of this institution, in the letter sent by the delegation, we need not enlarge on this head. A few things, however, should be said. We feel that the standard of education should be as high in this institution, as it is in institutions of a similar character in England and America. We do not mean that the course of study should be precisely the same, but that the same standard of mental cultivation should be aimed at. This is necessary for the same reasons that make it necessary in England and America. Our young men will never be well qualified for the work of the ministry without it. The many prominent defects in our best assistants appear to us as so many arguments urging the necessity of a more complete and thorough course of education than has hitherto been attained. We also consider it of the first importance that moral and religious influence should be united with every process of mental culture. Now our whole mission, considering the disadvantages of our being foreigners, both to the language and habits of the people, are not more than equal to the board of instruction and government in a suitably endowed college in a christian country. Does one in a heathen country require less.

9. The last particular we will mention in this connection, is the press. It must appear quite obvious, on reflection, that nearly the whole time of a missionary is demanded in direct editorial labor. The printing-office is now in such a state of efficiency that two thousand reams of paper may be worked up yearly. The interests of the Bible and tract society, to which it is mainly devoted, require that a person should be placed in connection with the establishment whose first business shall be to correct and revise the sheets preparing for the press. There is also a great amount of labor to be done in the way of preparing books, revising tracts and Scriptures, etc., which can never be performed by an editor alone, but will draw more or less upon the time of other members of the mission. There is a great mass of mind in this land receiving the rudiments of education, and that will be lost and worse than lost to every good cause, if it is not cultivated aright. If books of the right sort are not furnished in considerable variety, bad books will, by the agency of the enemy, find their way into the towns and villages, and be the means of polluting and destroying precious souls. The influential heathens in Madras are already making use of the press to disseminate the knowledge of the more plausible parts of their system of error. Infidelity and Socinianism are also promulgated among the natives, and have gained some adherents. How important is it, in this view, that the christian press should, as far as possible, pre-occupy the ground, and send forth into the community books of an interesting and healthful moral character? How can the people be lifted above their prejudices, but by giving them elevated views and an extensive range of thought? And how can these be attained without some acquaintance with books? How can a taste for reading be formed among a people naturally so indolent, without first exciting a thirst for knowledge? And how can this be done without supplying them with, at least, a gleaned handful from the vast variety of interesting and useful books? It is true those who have learned English well enough to understand it, may enjoy facilities for reading to almost any extent. But books in English for reading and study, are seldom adapted to interest the Tamul mind. Adequately to meet their wants, books must be entirely remodeled, or written anew in Tamul. We also considered it important to commence a periodical in Tamul and English, for the benefit more especially of youth, and are dissuaded from it only by the urgency of other indispensable duties. Nearly all the books that have hitherto been published, have been of a strictly religious character, so that there is yet a great deficiency in common school books. We have no books of history, geography, or arithmetic. We have no books for the theological student to perfect himself in the knowledge of the evidences of Christianity, the history of the Bible, etc. We have the Bible, precious book, and we know, in comparison with others, it outweighs them all. But just as valuable as other helps are in America, so valuable are they here, and as necessary for enlightening, sanctifying and saving the people. The practical sentiment of the church in regard to the institutions, she cherishes in her own bosom, must be extended to her pagan neighbors. In no other way can she discharge herself of the obligation to "do unto others as she would they should do unto her."

Urgent Demand for additional Missionaries.

The increasing variety and responsibility of our labors, which, we trust, have been clearly shown, are a necessary consequence of the system we are pursuing, and afford gratifying proof of its progress and success.

In order to give just importance to what we have already said, we wish to make a few remarks on the connection of our labors with the continental field. We will first offer this general remark.

That as this is one of the oldest missions of the Board, and has pursued a system of labor in some respects peculiar, which has been attended with gratifying success, the missionary world are looking with interest for the expected results and developements of our operations. Hence, other interests, besides those immediately concerned, are involved in the efficiency and success of our labors.

2. The influence of our labors in the seminary and female boarding school connects us with the continent. Our educated young men and women have always been in demand for the continent; and we believe it will continue to be the case. We do not suppose our seminary, even if carried forward under the most favorable auspices, will be able to supply more than a fractional part of the wants of the great field; certainly not so as to supersede the necessity of our brethren there taking such measures to provide for their own wants, as they would do if our seminary did not exist. It is a long and arduous work to train up well qualified native assistants and preachers. Age, as well as education, is necessary to form an established character. If after twenty years we are only beginning to realize some of the objects aimed at in this institution, we cannot reasonably suppose that circumstances have changed so that the same work may be done now within less than half that period. The fears and prejudices which were once felt by our young men in regard to their laboring on the continent, have greatly diminished; and as facilities for communication increase, and the way for their going is more effectually smoothed. We shall not be surprised if many of them prefer to labor in that field, rather than in Jaffna. We have no doubt that our brethren on the continent will partake, more largely than they have hitherto done, of the fruits of our seminary, and their wants as well as ours should be considered in weighing the claims of this institution.

3. The influence of our labors in connection with the press extends over the whole Tamul country. We send the same number of Scriptures to the continent as are distributed in Jaffna, and twice the number of tracts. Besides being sent to the Madura mission, our tracts are sent to Negapatam, Combaconum, Tanjore, Trichinopoly, Salem, Coimbatore, Palamcottah, Nagercoil, and Madras. This is owing to two reasons.

1. The facilities we enjoy for distributing our publications on the continent; and

2. The popular character of our tracts. Though we are separated by an arm of the sea, it offers no serious obstacle, as dhonies are frequently crossing at almost all seasons of the year. As Jaffna is only one third the distance of Madras from Madura, it is obvious that our missionary brethren on the southern part of the peninsula will place more or less dependence on our press to furnish them with books. Hence our labors in this connection assume an importance they would not otherwise possess.

The considerations that have been presented, will, we trust, shew the Committee the importance of sending a full reinforcement as soon as possible. We do not wish to disparage the interesting and important fields now open on the continent. We shall rejoice to see a new mission planted on the delta of the Coleroon, and we do not think that less than the number asked for that purpose will secure the object. But we think, to give that mission the best possible advantage, is to afford us the assistance we require. We shall be happy to pour into its bosom the richest treasures of our press and seminary. We feel that we have come to a point in our operations, where unless we receive timely and adequate assistance, not only will our strength fail, but some of the most important interests of the mission will be seriously retarded. It is known to you that Mr. Hoisington has been for some time in feeble health. He is about to make a trip on the continent with the hope of its being beneficial. This makes the wants of the seminary of peculiarly pressing importance.

RECENT INTELLIGENCE.

MEDITERRANEAN MISSIONS.—By letters from Smyrna, under date of 18th September, information is brought that Mr. Pease of the Cyprus mission was called away from his labors by death on the 28th of August, after having been sick twenty-one days of fever. No further particulars have been received.

Messrs. Beadle, Sherman, and Jones, with their wives, arrived safely at Smyrna. On the 18th of September Mr. and Mrs. Sherman went on board a steam-packet for Beyroot, whither they would soon be followed by Mr. and Mrs. Beadle. Mr. and Mrs. Jones had previously proceeded to Trebizond, on their way to join the mission to the Nestorians at Ooroomiah.

At Constantinople the opposition of the Armenians to the reform which had been going forward among them, had, to a great degree subsided. Some of those who had been banished had been permitted to return to Constantinople, and others were said to be on the way back.

Letters from Doct. Grant and Mr. Homes had been received at Constantinople to August 2d, when they were at Mardin, whither they had gone from Diarbeker. They were well, but could not safely leave the place on account of the disturbed state of the country.

MAHRATTAS.—The Rev. Messrs. Burgess, French, and Hume, with their wives and Miss Farrar, who embarked at Salem, in the brig Waverly, captain Ward, on the 1st of April last, arrived at Bombay August 10th, having touched on their way at Zanzibar on the coast of Africa, and at Muscat, near the entrance to the Persian gulf. The missionaries mention their great obligations to the captain, officers, and crew of the brig for the uninterrupted kind attentions which were shown them during the voyage.

CHOCTAWS.—On the 11th of November, Mr. Wright of Wheelock writes that one person had been received to his church, and five to that of Mr. Hotchkiss at Good Water. Two more, at least, it was expected would be added to the Wheelock church in December. In other respects the state of religion among the Choctaws remained in nearly the same state that it had been for the last year.

HOME PROCEEDINGS.

UNDER the foregoing head it is intended hereafter to insert notices of the organization and annual meetings of auxiliary and other co-operating societies, with occasional extracts from their annual reports; the appointment, proceedings, and reports of agents; interesting portions of domestic correspondence; ordinations and embarkation of missionaries; statements and addresses to the patrons and friends of the Board; and such other similar matter as may seem adapted to promote the object of this work. Agents of the Board, secretaries of auxiliaries, and delegates to meetings of auxiliaries, are respectfully invited to furnish such information and remarks, relating to their several labors, as will render it practicable to accomplish the object designed.

ANNIVERSARIES OF AUXILIARIES.

CONNECTICUT.—Windham County North. The annual meeting was held in Rev. Mr. Robinson's meeting-house, North Killingly, on Tuesday Sept. 17th. Rev. D. Dow, of Thompson, the vice president, presided; the president, Rev. Mr. Whitmore, of Westfield, being prevented by sickness from attending. The treasurer reported that the collections for the year amounted to $1,612, including a legacy of $300 from an individual deceased. This was about the same as was contributed the preceding year. The Rev. C. Eddy, general agent, attended and addressed the meeting as a delegate from the Board. Spirited addresses were also made by the Rev. Messrs. Tillotson of Brooklyn, Rockwood and Hough of South Woodstock, and others. A resolution was passed unanimously to raise at least $2,000 the ensuing year; and another resolution, pledging those who sustained it to double their own individual contributions, was carried by a large majority rising from their seats. The next annual meeting is to be at South Woodstock, on the Tuesday following the annual meeting of the Board.

Windham County South.—The annual meeting was held in Rev. Mr. Whiton's meeting-house, Scotland. The president, Rev. Mr. King, being absent, the Rev. Mr. Whiton presided. The treasurer, Z. Storrs, Esq., owing to a failure on the part of the associations to make their returns in season, was able to make only a partial report. From that it appeared probable that the amount of contributions this year would be something less than in the preceding year. The secretary, Rev. John E. Tyler of Windham, read a highly interesting report, and the meeting was addressed by the general agent, Rev. C. Eddy, Rev. Messrs. Atwood of South Mansfield, and Warren of Canterbury.—The receipts of this auxiliary for past years have been from $770 to $790. From the spirit manifested at the annual meeting, the hope is cherished that this year will witness a large increase.—The next annual meeting is to be in Windham, on the second Tuesday after the annual meeting of the Board.

Hartford County South.—The annual meeting was held in Upper Middletown, in the meeting-house of Rev. Z. Crocker, on Tuesday, Oct. 1st. The Rev. Dr. Chapin, president, Rev. Z. Crocker, secretary, and H. S. Ward, Esq., treasurer, were all present, with most of the clergymen belonging to Hartford South Consociation, and many lay delegates from neighboring churches. The congregation was addressed by the Rev. Eli Smith, missionary of the Board from Syria, and the Rev. C. Eddy, who attended as a delegation from the Board.—The treasurer's report was imperfect, because but few associations had made returns to him. By the acknowledgments of the treasurer of the parent Board, it appears that during the year ending July 31st, this auxiliary had paid $2,584.31. Most of the clergymen present expressed individually a determination to make far more vigorous efforts for the cause this year than they had ever done. If the feeling awakened and expressed at the meeting should continue, and be frequently expressed at the monthly concerts and from the pulpit, liberal as have been the contributions in years past, they would be greatly increased.

The Middlesex Consociation held their annual foreign missionary meeting at Essex, on Wednesday October 2d, in the Town Hall. The venerable father in the ministry, the Rev. Mr. Hotchkiss of Saybrook, presided. The treasurer, S. M. Pratt, Esq., made a report, so far as the returns from the associations enabled him to do it; from which it appeared that the liberality of the churches to this cause had somewhat declined during the year. A statement of the exigencies and prospects of the parent Board was made by the general agent, Rev. C. Eddy, after which very spirited remarks were made by Rev. Messrs. Hyde of Westbrook, Crane of Saybrook, and other clergymen.—The officers chosen for the ensuing year, are Rev. Isaac Parsons, president, Rev. George I. Carrington, secretary, and Selden M. Pratt, Esq., treasurer.

New Haven East.—The annual meeting was held, in connection with the Consociation, at Fairhaven, in Rev. Mr. Swan's church, on Thursday P. M., Oct. 3d. The Rev. Mr. Dodd of East Haven, presided. After an address from the Rev. Eli Smith, from Syria, and a statement of the wants of the Board with remarks by the general agent. A resolution was introduced and warmly advocated by a number of clergymen, and passed almost unanimously, to the following effect, "That we who are present will double our own contributions to the Board, and will use our influence to get the congregations with which we are connected to double theirs." But few congregations had made their annual donations, but where they had, it was the purpose of the pastors, which in some instances it is known has been carried into effect, to have the collections renewed immediately, for the purpose of getting them doubled. From this auxiliary the receipts for the last year amounted to $1,173.52.—President, Rev. Mr. Dodd, East Haven; secretary, Rev. Z. Whitmore, North Guilford; treasurer, S. Frisbie, Esq., Branford.

New Haven City.—The different congregations in the city which contribute to the funds of the Board met by appointment in the central church, Rev. Mr. Bacon's, on the evening of Sabbath, October 6th. A very intelligent and crowded audience listened with intense interest for an hour and a half to a statement from Rev. Eli Smith, from Syria, respecting the changes which have taken place in the Turkish empire, the openings and encouragements to preach the gospel there, and the happy effects which his eyes have already seen crowning the labors of our brethren in that field. After a statement of the wants of the Board by the general agent the subject was left with the pastors to be presented to their respective congregations on the following Sabbath, for the purpose of taking the annual collections. In the report of what was done in the city the last year, prepared by F. T. Jarman, the treasurer, and read by Rev. Leonard Bacon, it was pleasant to notice that one of the very largest sources of income was the Sabbath school in the North Church. The delegation, by request, visited and addressed this school, and while the deep interest taken by these children in the missionary enterprise, was manifested and the pleasure they feel in learning its prosperity, while their own contributions to it amount to more than $200 annually, the delegates could not forbear to wish and to pray that soon every Sabbath school in the land might become in like manner an auxiliary foreign missionary association. Trained in this manner, they will become efficient laborers in the cause hereafter.

MASSACHUSETTS.—The Franklin County Auxiliary held its annual meeting in the meeting-house of the Rev. Dr. Packard, in Shelburne, on Wednesday, October 9th. Eight pastors, a number of lay delegates from neighboring churches, and a respectable congregation attended. The day was spent in holding the anniversaries of four other societies in connection with this. The Rev. A. Chandler presided, Rev. R. C. Hatch, the secretary, read his report, and the treasurer's report was read by Rev. S. Washburn. Rev. C. Eddy, the general agent, and Rev. Ephraim Spaulding attended as a delegation from the Board, and addressed the meeting. Addresses were also made by Rev. Dr. Packard, Rev. Messrs. Ware, Clark, Washburn, and others; and a resolution adopted by a large majority of the people in attendance to double their own contributions, and to do their utmost to secure double from the congregations to which they belonged. The meeting was one of deep interest, and cannot fail to be profitable to those who were there, and through them to the churches.

Northampton and Vicinity.—The annual meeting was held in the meeting-house of the first congregation in Northampton, on Thursday, October 10th. The Rev. N. Perkins presided. Rev. Dr. Hawes of Hartford, Ct., preached an interesting and impressive sermon, to which a respectable congregation listened with fixed and apparently devout attention. Rev. Messrs. Spaulding and Eddy were present as a delegation from the Board; but the time and the circumstances did not allow of their presenting its peculiar exigencies, or of speaking upon the subject to any good effect. Nothing was done here in relation to future action.

The Hampden County Auxiliary held its annual meeting, in connection with a meeting of their association, at Longmeadow, in Rev. Mr. Beebe's meeting-house, on Friday, October 11th. The anniversaries of five other benevolent societies being held on the same day. The Rev. Dr. Cooley presided. Rev. Dorus Clarke, the secretary, read an able report, and S. Warriner, Esq., the treasurer, exhibited the state of the treasury, showing the animating fact, that the contributions from the associations exceeded those of the preceding year by about $1,400. The meeting was addressed by Rev. C. Eddy, Rev. E. Spaulding, Rev. D. Clarke, and others; and a resolution adopted similar to that which had been adopted by other auxiliaries, pledging greater effort, and an increase of liberality for the year to come. Most of the clergymen belonging to the association were present, and a respectable congregation of people. All were gratified and profited by the solemnities of that day, which will not be forgotten.

Worcester Central Auxiliary.—The anniversary was held in the meeting-house of Rev. Mr. Allen, in Shrewsbury, on Wednesday, October 16th. With only one or two exceptions, the clergymen were all present, and a full delegation of lay members from the churches. The congregation was large and in most happy mood, corresponding with the pleasantness of the delightful day, and more delightful occasion. The Rev. J. Nelson presided. The Rev. Mr. Farnsworth, secretary, presented his report, but at his request was excused from reading it in order to give the time to the delegation. The treasurer's report, by H. Wheeler, Esq., exhibited an increase of about $700, over the preceding year. Rev. E. Spaulding, Rev. Eli Smith, and Rev. C. Eddy addressed the meeting, and the congregation, instead of becoming weary, while the delegation were making their protracted addresses, seemed greatly to increase, in the missionary spirit, and listened to further animated addresses from the Rev. Messrs. Boardman, Allen, Bardwell, Miller, and others. A resolution was adopted similar to that passed by other societies; pledging increased effort for this year.

Brookfield and Vicinity.—The anniversary was held in connection with that of other benevolent societies, in the meeting-house of Rev. Mr. Carpenter, in Southbridge, on Tuesday, October 22d. The Rev. Mr. Fiske presided. Rev. F. Horton, the secretary, read an excellent report. The treasurer, A. Newell, Esq., exhibited his report, which showed some increase over any preceding year; and during the meeting the pleasant and important fact was incidentally disclosed, that, from the first year of its existence, this society had every year made an advance beyond any year preceding. If this were uniformly true of all the patrons of the missionary work, all embarrassments and retrograde movements on the part of the Board could easily be avoided. The Rev. C. Eddy was present as a delegate from the Board, and addressed the society. A number of other gentlemen, both clergymen and laymen, spoke with much effect on a resolution introduced by Rev. Mr. Trask. There was but one sentiment expressed by them all, and that the best kind, That, in correspondence with the necessities of the cause, they would all labor and contribute with reference to a large increase of funds for this year.—There was a full attendance from all the churches, and a large congregation of gratified and profited hearers.

Worcester North.—The anniversary was held in the Rev. Mr. Sabin's meeting-house, in Templeton, on Thursday, P. M., October 24th. All the pastors were present, and the delegates from neighboring churches, together with the members of the congregation attending, made a large assembly for such an occasion. The Rev. A. Lovell presided. Rev. D. O. Morton, secretary, read his report; and the treasurer, Benjamin Hawkes, Esq. reported respecting the funds so far as the imperfect returns from the associations allowed him to do it. From some churches there was an increase of donations, and from some there was exhibited an unhappy decrease. How the whole amount will compare with past years cannot be told until it is all paid in.—Rev. E. Spaulding and Rev. C. Eddy attended as delegates from the Board, and addressed the meeting. The society being requested not to attempt an expression of their feelings in a resolution, most of the clergymen and a number of laymen made short addresses, until they were prevented by the lateness of the hour. Seldom, if ever, was more pure and generous feeling expressed in so happy a manner, and in so short a time. Some left willing offerings in the hands of the treasurer, amounting to more than $30; others promised to go home, and go around again as collectors, for the purpose of getting an amount which should better compare with the wants of the missions than the sum which had been reported.

MISSIONARY HERALD.

It is believed that could the number of persons who take the Missionary Herald and become its constant readers be greatly increased, there would soon be a corresponding increase of contributions for carrying forward the missions of the Board. If the friends of Christ can by any motives be induced to contribute intelligently, cheerfully and liberally for carrying the gospel to the heathen, it must be while having the condition and character of the heathen and the practicability of enlightening and saving them, as seen in the current history of missionary operations, brought distinctly before their minds, they hear the command of Christ, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

Believing that the Missionary Herald is the most economical, efficient, and most acceptable agent of the Board, the Prudential Committee have recently addressed a circular to many members of the Board, ministers, and other persons, respectfully requesting them, so far as their circumstances and duties will permit, to adopt measures for increasing the number of subscribers for the work in the places where they reside and the vicinity. This may be done by introducing the subject and obtaining names at some religious or other meeting; by recommending it to the attention of neighbors and friends; by individuals calling on the families of small districts and inviting persons to subscribe for it; and in other similar ways. Probably the friends of missions could in no other manner, by their personal efforts, promote the cause more effectually, than in that now suggested.

At the present time, when the contributions to the treasury are so inadequate to meet the wants of the missions, it seems specially desirable that the Missionary Herald should be taken and perused by as many as possible; that the interesting statements sent home by the brethren and sisters now laboring among the heathen may meet the eye and move the hearts and call forth donations and prayers from all. The beginning of the year is also a favorable time for commencing a subscription.

One minister to whom the circular mentioned above respecting the Missionary Herald has been sent, writes that the agent in the village will make an effort to enlarge the subscription list, and adds, "I shall read the circular to my congregation, making such remarks as seem desirable, and urge a full subscription. I will endeavor to get the clergy of this county to do in like manner; and in order to carry out this plan, be so good as to send me fifteen copies of the circular. These I will send out, and do what I can to accomplish the increase of the subscriptions." In one college in New England the number of subscribers has been increased to 127.

EXTRACTS FROM CORRESPONDENCE.

THE pastor of a church in a country village, on the day after the last monthly concert for prayer, writes—

At the concert yesterday the account of the receipts for five months, ending with October 31st, this year, compared with those of other years, seemed to fill us all with the deepest emotion. One lady, who lives by the labor of her hands, lately gave five dollars at the collection among the females in our society; and at the close of the meeting yesterday gave three dollars more to the sister who acts as collector in her district.—At the concert last month a poor woman, after hearing the account given in the appeal in behalf of the missions of the Board, took home with her shoes enough to bind to earn two dollars, and has since added it to her former very liberal contribution. The time has come when the widow's mite, where self-denial is practised, is not to be despised. Those who have must give. May God Almighty sustain you, Amen.

Donations,

RECEIVED IN NOVEMBER.

NOTE.—Individuals and associations who contemplate making donations for supporting single pupils, or schools, to be named by them, are respectfully requested to peruse the remarks on this subject inserted on page 74 of the number for February of last volume.
